

International Training Institute_® For the Welding and Industrial Industry

BUILD YOUR CAREER

When you enter a sheet metal apprenticeship, you will work in an on-the-job training program and attend specialized classes for between four and five years. As an apprentice, you:

• Earn a good salary while learning your trade

Pay little to no tuition costs

Graduate without student loan debt

Many well-paying in-demand career paths to choose from:

HVAC (Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning)

Service & Refrigeration

Architectural

Welding

- Receive books and other educational material free of charge
- Learn from instructors who have hands-on experience

TAB (Testing, Adjusting and Balancing)

More

